

WORKPLACE GIVING: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What is workplace giving?

A: Workplace giving is an easy and efficient way for employees to make tax-deductible donations to charities through payroll contributions. Ongoing payroll contributions provide a much-needed, steady stream of revenue to charities to further their work.

Q: Why OneSight?

A: We imagine a world where access to vision care is no longer a barrier to human achievement and possibility. Our mission is to improve lives by creating access to quality vision care and eyeglasses in underserved communities worldwide with the goal of closing the global vision care gap in our lifetime.

Q: How can my company support OneSight through workplace giving?

A: There are two options.

- 1) If your company has a workplace giving program (we recommend checking with your Human Resources team), OneSight could be featured as a “charity of choice” during an upcoming campaign. And if you need marketing materials, we’ve got you covered. Email templates and OneSight marketing materials can be found here: onesight.org/workplace-giving-toolkit.
- 2) If you’re launching a workplace giving program for the first time, we would love to partner with you to bring this to life. Each program is different so reach out to Brittany Alba at balba@onesight.org or 513-283-9690 to schedule a quick 15-minute discovery call.

Q: What is an EIN number?

A: Employer Identification Number (EIN) is a Federal nine-digit tax number that the IRS assigns to nonprofits, charities, organizations, and businesses in the following format: XX-XXXXXXX.

Q: Does OneSight have an EIN number?

A: Yes, OneSight is a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Our EIN number is 31-1385607.

Q: Will employees receive a tax receipt for their donations?

A: Yes, but distribution will depend on the donation process. If your company uses a platform like Benevity, the receipt will be managed through that system. If OneSight is managing your workplace giving campaign, we will send tax receipts to employees.
